Things are getting unusually busy around our place these days. Holiday goods coming daily. Going to have a better assortment this year than ever.

Stoke The Druggist.

A Little of Everything. Peck's Bad Boy to-night. Twenty-three days until Christmas. The season for hunting deer closed Monday.

Robert Bone, sr., returned last week from a ten day visit in Glen Campbell, Horton and Rossiter. Five miles of grade on the Clarion & Summerville railroad has been completed and is ready for ties and rails.

Sleighting is fairly good now, but a little more of the "beautiful" would make it excellent. P. J. Connelly, superintendent of the Metropolitan Insurance Co's work at this place, has moved from Penfield to Reynoldsville.

"Roney's Boys" rendered their numbers with the ease, grace and finish of artists thrice their age.—Indianapolis Journal. See them at Assembly hall Dec. 11.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet at home of Mrs. Joseph R. Milliren Friday afternoon. Lunch will be served at five o'clock.

Men are now at work running the Fourth street paving across Main street. The trolley track has been laid over the small strip of Main street to be paved.

Tuesday evening, December 8th, the Daughters of Rebekah will hold public installation ceremonies in the I. O. O. F. hall. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

A hunter from the neighborhood of Pittsburg got on the 1.20 p. m. train at this place Saturday who had a string of twenty-nine rabbits and seven or eight pheasants.

Rev. Alex D. McKay, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, is assisting in a series of special meetings in the Punxsutawney Presbyterian church this week.

Prof. J. Russell Wilson, principal of the West Reynoldsville schools, was unable to be on duty Monday on account of suffering with two boils, one on upper lip and one on his neck.

Beginning last night the B. P. O. Elks of Reynoldsville will give social entertainments in their rooms every Tuesday night until April 5th, when the entertainments will end with a leap year party.

The following new students have been enrolled in the Reynoldsville Business College: Edward Burns, jr., Roscoe Delbe, A. F. O'Donnell and Robert Robertson.

Hon. Mat Savage, editor of the Clearfield Daily Public Spirit, will make the address at the B. P. O. E. memorial meeting in Centennial hall Sunday afternoon. A number of Clearfield Elks will accompany Mr. Savage to this place.

When there is a lecture in Assembly hall the gas light suspended in rear of the stage should be turned out, as it comes in range with the speakers head and is very annoying to those who want to look at the speaker.

Rev. George H. Hill, of Beechwoods, preached in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church Tuesday evening of last week. Rev. F. P. Brit, of Corsica, filled the pulpit Wednesday evening and Rev. J. Vernon Bell, of DuBois, preached Friday evening.

"Roney's Boys" have left a remembrance of a delightful concert, never to be forgotten. It stands chief and supreme of all our entertainments in variety and artistic finish.—Wallace Bruce, President of Florida Chautauque, De Funiak Springs, Fla.

A freight wreck occurred on the P. R. near Tyler Thanksgiving morning. Seven or eight cars were piled up. The eastbound and westbound morning passenger trains had to transfer passengers at the scene of the wreck, delaying trains over an hour.

A home talent entertainment, for benefit of Captain and Mrs. Bradford, was given in Centennial hall Monday evening. There was a large audience present, the hall was full and the entertainment was one of the best of the kind given in Reynoldsville for some time.

Bernice, nine-month-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Euler, received a bad burn on right side of her head Saturday evening. The baby was sleeping under a gas light when the globe broke and a hot piece fell on her. A piece of the hot glass also burned a hole in her clothing.

A young miss on Grant street, in a home where there is a three-year-old girl, had a beau one night last week and when the mother wanted the three-year-old to go to bed she began to scream, "I want a beau! I want a beau!" The mother had some trouble in getting the little "tot" to quit crying and go to bed without a beau.

Mrs. M. M. McAdoo received a cactus by mail last week from her mother, Mrs. John McCreight, who is now at Mineral Park, Arizona. A Reynoldsville merchant gives this explanation of how cactus was first introduced in Arizona: "The devil was flying over the country with an armful of cactus for Christmas presents and when he got to Arizona he was tired and dropped his load."

A meeting of the Mothers' Club will be held in Assembly hall, December 4th. The business meeting will open promptly at 3.30. After the business meeting the following program will be given. Address by Prof. McClure, subject, "School Discipline"; vocal quartette, Florence Harris, Twila Shafter, Lillian Harris, Alice Mitchell; recitation, Kathryn Gillespie; vocal solo, Wallace Mitchell.

The DuBois football team was to have played the Reynoldsville "Indians" at this place Thanksgiving afternoon, all arrangements had been made, the guarantee money raised and the game advertised, but at 8.30 Wednesday evening the DuBois team telephoned that they could not play at Reynoldsville Thanksgiving, giving no excuse for disappointing the "Indians." The DuBois team must have concluded that it would be more honorable to break an engagement than to enter into a game when they were sure of being defeated. The game would have been played in Tom Reynolds' field above the Mansion Inn. There was enough grass on the ground to keep it from freezing and the field was in good condition for football.

Flickinger-Strouse. Samuel Flickinger, of Anita, formerly of this place, and Miss Tena Strouse, of Paradise, were married at Luthersburg Wednesday, November 18, 1903, by Rev. Seiner, pastor of Paradise Lutheran church.

Body Disinterred. The body of Mrs. R. W. Kunz, who was killed on the Main street crossing of R. & F. C. R'y March 25, 1901, and buried in Beulah cemetery, will be raised this forenoon and shipped to Buffalo, N. Y., for interment.

Young Men's Meetings. G. W. Lenker will have charge of the meeting in the Young Men's Reading Association rooms at 3.00 p. m. next Sunday. There was a good attendance last Sunday afternoon. Rev. Perry A. Reno conducted that meeting.

Finger Amputated. Sunday evening two physicians amputated the large finger of Frank Palaggo's right hand. The boy's finger was caught in the cogs of a machine at the silk mill the 21st of November, but the amputation was postponed in hopes of saving the finger.

Killed Two Deer and a Bear. Ed. Lewis, Charles Dunkle and Bob Gibson, of this place, who were over in Elk county two weeks hunting, returned home Monday evening. They killed two deer, one big black bear and two wildcats. Bruin was banging in front of Frank's Tavern yesterday.

Hot and Painful Accident. The fifteen-month-old son of Polander residing on Pleasant avenue met with a peculiar and distressing accident last Sunday evening. The little fellow was playing in a room over the kitchen wherein was a heater hole in the floor directly over the kitchen stove, and in some manner the little boy fell through the hole, feet first, lighting square on top of the hot cooking stove on his bare posterior. The boy was badly burned.

Candidates for Assembly. The indications now are that the Republicans of Jefferson county will have at least four candidates from which to select one next year for Assemblyman. William T. Cox, of Reynoldsville, S. Taylor North, of Punxsutawney, Hon. Henry I. Wilson, of Big Run, and Hon. C. R. Yasbinder, of Brookville, we understand, will be candidates. Of course only one will get the nomination, and we believe THE STAR could name the winner now, but will not do so because it would discourage the other candidates.

Nose Broken. James B. Arnold, formerly of Reynoldsville, now of Philadelphia, who holds a good position as purchasing agent for the Western Electric Company of Philadelphia, was badly injured a few days ago by falling off a pile of electric light poles. The inspector and Mr. Arnold were on top of a large pile of wood poles and Mr. Arnold slipped and fell. He was picked up unconscious. His nose was broken and he also received several severe bruises. The distance and manner in which he fell might have resulted in sudden death for Mr. Arnold.

Reserved Seats for Lecture Course. The plot of Assembly hall for the first attraction of the Public School Lecture course will be opened at Mr. Stoke's drug store Saturday morning, Dec. 5th, at eight o'clock. All persons holding season tickets may have seats reserved for them for the whole course by the payment of fifty cents extra. Seats reserved for a single number will be at the rate of ten cents extra. The price of course tickets is one dollar. This, to be sure, does not include the reserving of seats. Tickets for single numbers will be fifty cents each including the privilege of reserved seats.

Dr. Furbay's Lecture. Dr. Harvey Graeme Furbay, of Columbus, Ohio, at one time pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, delivered an excellent lecture in Assembly hall on Thanksgiving evening to an appreciative audience. Dr. Furbay's ability is so well known to Reynoldsville people that comment is hardly unnecessary at this time, but will say that he has improved considerably in the past ten years. Dr. Furbay is certainly a fluent and eloquent speaker. His subject was, "The Fraternal State," and for one hour and forty-five minutes he held the close attention of the audience by his clear, forceful logic and oratorical power.

DuBois Team Backed Down. The DuBois football team was to have played the Reynoldsville "Indians" at this place Thanksgiving afternoon, all arrangements had been made, the guarantee money raised and the game advertised, but at 8.30 Wednesday evening the DuBois team telephoned that they could not play at Reynoldsville Thanksgiving, giving no excuse for disappointing the "Indians." The DuBois team must have concluded that it would be more honorable to break an engagement than to enter into a game when they were sure of being defeated. The game would have been played in Tom Reynolds' field above the Mansion Inn. There was enough grass on the ground to keep it from freezing and the field was in good condition for football.

Thanksgiving Services. The attendance at the Union Thanksgiving services held in the Methodist Episcopal church last Thursday was not as large as it should have been. Four different churches, Presbyterian, Baptist, Lutheran and Methodist, united in this service and yet the church was not more than two-thirds full. Any church in Reynoldsville is too small to hold all the protestant people who should attend Thanksgiving services. At 8.30 a. m. there was Thanksgiving services in the Catholic church, which was attended by a large congregation.

Revs. Meek, McKay, Myers and Reno assisted in the services at the M. E. church. Rev. J. H. Myers, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, preached the sermon, selecting for his text several verses from the 24th Psalm. The sermon did not contain any superfluous words and was full of sound logic. It was an excellent sermon, as fine a Thanksgiving sermon as has been preached in Reynoldsville for some time.

Elks Memorial. The annual memorial service of Reynoldsville Lodge No. 519, B. P. O. Elks, will be held in Centennial hall Sunday afternoon, December 6th, 1903, at two p. m., to which the general public is invited.

ORDER OF EXERCISES. "Hearts and Flowers" - Strauss Orchestra Opening Ceremonies - By the Exalted Ruler "Abide With Me" - Ladies' Quartette Opening Ode - Members of Lodge Prayer - Rev. A. J. Meek "The Lord is My Shepherd," - Male Quartette Address - Bro. Mat Savage "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," - Ladies' Quartette "Sunbeams and Shadows," Strauss Orchestra "Abide With Me" - Male Quartette "The Radiant Morn Hath Passed Away" - Quartette Closing Ceremonies. Doxology. Benediction.

Peck's Bad Boy. That ever popular farce comedy that has made millions laugh will be at the Reynolds opera house this, Wednesday, evening and if you desire to have a hearty laugh at good, wholesome fun, without vulgarity, you should not miss this opportunity. It always was funny, and is doubly so now, as a brand new version has been prepared and is presented this season for the first time. New scenery, costumes, songs, dances, specialties, dialogue, business situations in fact everything is new, bright and pleasing.

Date of Banquet Changed. The annual banquet of the Jefferson County Bar Association was to have been held at the American House in Brookville Tuesday evening, January 12, 1904, but as Governor Pennypacker fixed that date for the execution of the two Italians now in Jefferson county jail, the Bar Association changed the date of banquet, as a hanging and banquet in one day within a stones throw seemed not in accordance with the eternal fitness of things.

Blind Palmist and Phrenologist. Prof. N. E. Kresge, of Williamsport, Pa., is stopping at the City Hotel, Reynoldsville. He reads the character, nature and also past, present and future, and knows no fortune telling by cards. Ladies and gentlemen, if you desire to patronize a blind man call on him at the City Hotel, room No. 7. It will only cost you the small price of 25 cents. If satisfaction is not given it will cost nothing. All reading strictly private. He will examine head and hand. In other words he is a blind palmist and phrenologist. Don't forget to call on the blind man and give him your patronage.

Fraternal Order of Eagles. The Fraternal Order of Eagles, a beneficial order, was instituted in Bell's hall, Reynoldsville, Thanksgiving afternoon with a membership of eighty. A delegation from the Fraternal Order of Eagles of DuBois came down and assisted in instituting the new order at this place. The Keystone Cornet band met the visitors at the P. R. R. station, who came in on the 1.20 p. m. train, and escorted them to Bell's hall.

The following officers were elected: Past Worthy President, Fred Zettler; Worthy Vice-President, George Harris; Worthy Chaplain, Frank C. Wilson; Worthy Treasurer, Dr. J. C. Sayers; Worthy Conductor, John Craft; Trustees, Charles Ritzke, George Harris and James Carroll; Inner Guard, John O'Conner; Outer Guard, Pete London. Chief Jesse Hedrick, of Harrisburg, installed the officers.

About seven o'clock Thanksgiving evening members of the new order and visitors took supper at Hotel Imperial and City Hotel.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles starts out in Reynoldsville with a large membership and favorable environments.

Descriptive Booklet. William S. Main, of Pittsburg, special agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad freight department, was in Reynoldsville yesterday and in company with the agent at this place, M. J. Farrell, made THE STAR office a pleasant call. The freight department has issued a booklet which contains information for use in the location of industries on the lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., including towns along the Low Grade Division. Mr. Main was here to acquaint himself with the resources and advantages of this locality. The booklets will be issued every three months. Anybody can get a copy by addressing Mr. Main, room 220 Union Station, Pittsburg.

Murdered in Alabama. Roger Bowen, brother of Richard P. Bowen, of Reynoldsville, was murdered near Birmingham, Alabama, November 21, by a lazy negro. Mr. Bowen was foreman for a railroad company and had charge of a crew of negroes, one of whom refused to do his work and Mr. Bowen told him to go to the office and get his money and quit the job. The negro pulled a revolver out of his pocket and shot Mr. Bowen three times, killing him. The body was brought to Bryn Mawr, near Philadelphia, and buried Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Johanna Bowen, mother of deceased, Richard P. Bowen and his son, Charles, of this place, attended the funeral.

Kicked by a Horse. George Sharp, of Reynoldsville, who has a large contract of taking out timber for a lumber company at Garee, Clearfield county, and is living at the camp temporarily, had his right leg, above the ankle, broken Wednesday evening of last week by a horse kicking him. The bones of the leg were terribly shattered. Mr. Sharp was driving in a buggy when something struck the horse's heels and it began kicking. The first kick knocked the dash board off buggy and the second kick struck Mr. Sharp's leg. Drs. Reynolds of this place, and Booher, of Falls Creek, were called to Garee Saturday morning and they had Mr. Sharp moved to DuBois Hospital Saturday afternoon to have leg amputated, but Mr. Sharp was in such a critical condition that the operation has not been performed yet. Mr. Sharp's condition was about the same this morning as it was yesterday. He has not passed the danger point.

Died With Typhoid Fever. Four weeks ago Sunday night Mrs. William Bauer and son, Lawrence, of Kittanning, came to Reynoldsville to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. John Spear. One week after their arrival Lawrence was stricken with typhoid fever, which resulted in his death at 1.30 a. m., Friday, November 27, 1903. Funeral service was held at residence of Mr. Spear at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. J. H. Myers, pastor of the Lutheran church. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery. Lawrence Bauer was born in Reynoldsville November 18, 1887, making him a few days over 16 years old at time of death. His parents moved from Reynoldsville to Kittanning two years ago and this was Lawrence's first visit in Reynoldsville since they moved away. Lawrence had a number of warm young friends in this place. The funeral was largely attended. There were a number of beautiful floral pieces.

Death From Cancer. Adam Lott, aged about 69 years, a well-to-do farmer of Henderson township, who sold his produce in Reynoldsville for a number of years, died Tuesday night of last week, November 24, 1903, with cancer on the left side of his face, near the eye. Adam Lott was born in Germany. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lott, moved to America when he was a small lad and located near where Troutville is now situated. Mr. Lott is survived by two brothers, one sister and four sons and five daughters. Wife of the deceased died over three years ago. Funeral services were held at the late residence of Mr. Lott last Friday at 9.00 a. m., conducted by Rev. R. E. Crum, of DuBois. Interment was made in the Union cemetery. Mr. Lott was an industrious, honest and honored citizen of Henderson township, highly esteemed by the business men of Reynoldsville with whom he did business.

Silk Weavers Wanted. Operatives wanted in all departments of broad silk weaving at Liberty Silk Co.'s mill, Hornellsville, New York. Steady work, good wages, healthy location on main line Erie Rail Road. Address: Liberty Silk Co., Hornellsville, New York.

Dr. D. F. Fox, my Congregational co-laborer in Chicago, is a man with a message. It is an unfeigned pleasure to speed the work of such a speaker. Let that man be untroubled who introduces him to an audience. He never fails to move and uplift. I say do not miss his lecture unless you have a grudge against yourself. Hear him—Robert McIntyre. At Assembly hall December 16.

Dr. Gibson has visited so long and been so successful that you cannot mistake in consulting him if troubled with headache, blurring, &c., caused by eyestrains. See his dates.
